

Storm Water Training coming to Billings, MT

In Person WQM 130 – Storm Water Management for Industrial Operations October 10, 2024 Billings, MT

Registration opens soon: www.altitudeta.com

This training program was developed by Altitude Training Associates, LLC for professionals managing storm water permitting conditions in industrial operations. The training covers”

- Industrial Storm water permitting requirements
- The controls available to manage storm water run-off and pollutants inherent to the operations.
- BMPs to successfully manage site drainage and control pollutants.
- Included in these discussions will be the correct selection, installation and implementation of these Best Management Practices (BMPs) for drainage and pollutants.

COST: $200/person

LOCATION: This is an in person class. The venue has not been confirmed but the class will be in Billings.

CLASS TIME: Class starts at 8am and wraps up between 4 and 430pm. There will be a one hour lunch break.

(970) 317-4308 • scott@altitudeta.com • www.altitudeta.com